

STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH 1974 RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT

1. GENERAL POLICY

Under the authority of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, a student has the right to examine certain files, records, or documents maintained by the school, which pertain to him/her. The school must permit a student to examine such records within 45 days after submission of a written request and to obtain copies of such records upon payment of the cost of reproduction.

A student may request that the school amend his education records on the grounds that they are inaccurate, misleading, or in violation of his right of privacy act. In the event that the school refuses to so amend the records, a student may request a hearing.

2. EDUCATIONAL RECORDS

Educational records are all files, records, or documents maintained by the school that contain information directly related to the student. Each student has two separate files, an Education and Financial Aid file. The records are maintained by each individual department (Education and Financial Aid). When the student completes or withdraws, the two (2) files are combined and stored in the campus vault. The only persons allowed access to such records are those who have a legitimate administrative or educational interest.

3. EXEMPTIONS

The following items are exempt for the Act:

A. Parents' Confidential Statement, Financial Need Analysis Report, and the Pell Eligibility Report.

B. Confidential letters of recommendation received by the school prior to January 1, 1975. As to such letters received after 1974, the Act permits a student to waive his right of access if the letters are related to admission, employment, or honors.

4. REVIEW OF RECORDS

It is the policy of the school to monitor educational records to ensure that they do not contain information that is inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise inappropriate. The school may destroy records that are no longer useful or pertinent to the student's circumstances.

5. ACCESS WITHOUT STUDENT CONSENT

The school may release student information without written consent of the student to:

A. Other school officials who have legitimate interests.

B. Other schools where students have applied for admission. In this case, students must be advised that the records are being sent so that they may receive a copy and have an opportunity to review and challenge the records.

C. Authorized representative of the Department of Education and the Comptroller General of the United States.

D. State and local authorities, where required.

E. Accrediting agencies.

F. Parents of a student who is their dependent as defined in the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. However, the school is not required to release such records.

G. To comply with a court order or subpoena, provided that the student is notified prior to compliance.

H. In the event of a health or safety emergency, where such release without consent is necessary under the circumstances.
